

Staff Photo by Nelson Brooks

The King's New Arm

King Gambrinus, who had raised a foaming glass since the 1880s from the old Diamond State Brewery, stands resplendent with new paint, a new arm, and a new flagon of beer in front of the King's Arms on Naaman's Road between Foulk and Marsh Roads. Gambrinus was sold when the brewery was demolished to make room for the freeway.